LIST OF ITEMS TO BE PROVIDED

Nota :

To simplify the submission of your dossier, you may send your photos, drawings or sketches in digital form to the following e-mail address: Trophee.Archizinc@umicore.com.

Please send:

- Photos : jpeg, 300 dpi, 8 x 5 cm size minimum
- Sketches : eps, dwg, dxf or jpeg files
- Maximum of 5 to 6 Mo per e-mail.

■ Photos

The photos should allow the judges to assess the architectural quality of the project and the parts of the building that are in zinc. These photos shall be in digital form (use jpeg file, 300 dpi, 8 x 5 cm size minimum).

If the organiser judges it necessary in order to ensure the quality of the FOCUS ON ZINC magazine, a photo report of the buildings selected for publication will be carried out after the results have been announced.

Umicore will be entirely responsible for the costs and fees for these photo reports. If the photos submitted in the file are used, the copyrights for this publication will be transferred to Umicore France.

■ Drawings and sketches

The drawings or sketches have to be submitted in any form, paper or computer (in this case use eps, dwg, dxf or jpeg files). They must include at least 2 of the following:

- A block plan of the building, a perspective drawing or axonometry.
- Layout plan of the zinc roof or facade elements.
- Section of the main part of the roof or facade complex.
- Detail of zinc working drawings

Clause 1

Umicore France with a capital of € 33.175.000, located at 40 rue Jean Jaurès 93176 Bagnolet, SIRET number 34296500100015, in partnership with personalities from the world of architecture and the building industry, is organising the Trophée ARCHIZINC by VMZINC, from September 2009 to December 2009.

Clause 2

This competition is free with no obligation to buy and is strictly reserved for architects and design teams who work independently or who are employed by an architectural firm or design office. Employees of Umicore companies and the organisers can not participate.

Clause 3 Eligibility

Conditions for eligibility are as follows:

- Architectural projects with zinc from VMZINC, roofs and/or facades,
- over 100 sq m of surface covered with zinc,
- projects where the specification and installation of the zinc follow recognised good practice and VMZINC recommendations,
- which were inspected and handed over after January 1st 2004,
- which have not yet been featured in FOCUS ON ZINC.

Clause 4 Obtaining application packages

Those wishing to register for the ARCHIZINC Trophy can obtain their application package:

- By requesting it from our informative mails sent by Umicore (specifications emailings or with the FOCUS ON ZINC N°11)
 - By downloading it from our web site www.vinzinc.com,
 - By picking it up at BATIMAT, construction trade fair in Paris (VMZINC, Stand 46, Hall 1, Aisle G) from November 2 to 7, 2009,
 - By requesting it from the organisers, Umicore.
- Simply indicating interest by talking to the Umicore representatives will not be considered as a valid application.

Clause 5 Registration of applications

Registration for the competition is effective on receipt by Umicore of the registration file with all the required information duly completed before December 31, 2009. A letter from the organiser, Umicore, acknowledging receipt of the file and its contents and assigning an identification number to the file will confirm acceptance of the application.

Clause 6 The registration file

The file will consist of the following to be included with the registration material:

- The registration form completed in full,
- The reasons for the architectural choice for the project (optional)
- A selection of photos for the jury showing the architectural quality of the project and the areas covered in VMZINC. These photos shall be in digital form (high-definition resolution).
- Drawings or sketches in any form, paper or computer (in this case use eps, dwg, dxf or jpeg files). These must include at least 2 of the following:
 - A block plan of the building, a perspective drawing or an axonometry
 - Layout plan of the zinc roof or facade elements
 - Section of the main part of the roof or facade complex
 - Detail of zinc working drawings.

Clause 7 Categories

The four categories to be judged will be the categories usually featured in FOCUS ON ZINC:

- Collective housing
- Individual housing
- Public Buildings
- Commercial buildings

In addition, Special Prizes may be awarded by the Jury, for "Innovation", "Tradition" and "Sustainable development".

Clause 8 Choice of categories by candidates

The architects wishing to compete may choose their categories. Architects can submit one or several projects in one or several categories. However, each project must be submitted in a separate application file.

Clause 9 Composition du Jury

The jury will be made up of 13 people who will be professionals from outside the Umicore Company. The members are:

- Dominique Boudet, Sub-editor of the AMC, architectural magazine Le Moniteur Architecture, Chairman of the Trophée ARCHIZINC Jury, France;
- Frédéric Borel, architect, Paris, France;
- Lluís Dilmé, architect, Estudi Dilmé & Fabrè, Spain;
- Lionel Dunet, architect DESA, member of the French national board of the "Ordre des Architectes", France;
- Christophe Egret, architect, Great Britain;
- Serge Fraas, architect, Belgium;
- Dimitris Kontargyris, architect engineer NTUA (National Technical University of Athens), Greece;
- Simone Kosremelli, Architect, Architect & Urban Planner, Lebanon;
- Tomasz Markowski, architect, ECT - The Architect Company, Poland;
- Gilles de Montmarin, Architect DPLG, Deputy Director SEMAPA (SEM Aménagement de Paris), France;
- Dirk Jan Postel, architect, senior partner of the cabinet d'architecture Kraaijvanger Urbis, Netherlands;
- Dominique Queffelec, Chairperson of ARCORA, Engineering Company specialising in cladding for building structures, Paris, France;

Anik Shooner, architect, Member of the Quebec Order of Architects and Fellow of the Royal Architectural Institute of Canada, Canada.

Clause 10 Selection criteria

The identity of the architects whose projects have been submitted will be kept secret, in order to ensure the complete neutrality and impartiality of the jury. Nevertheless, all the elements submitted must be clearly identified so that the dossiers remain complete. The jury will decide on the criteria for assessing the projects entered in each category before March 2010, the date set for judging the entries.

The criteria will be based on the use of innovation, the quality of the projects, and the creative use of zinc.

The decisions of the jury are final and no recourse can be sought against them.

Clause 11 Awards

The winners' projects (category winners and Jury's award winner) will be highlighted in a special edition of the international magazine, FOCUS ON ZINC.

About 80,000 copies of this magazine will be published in October 2010 at the latest, and will be distributed to owners, architects and design teams in at least 10 countries.

If the organiser judges it necessary, in order to ensure the quality of the FOCUS ON ZINC magazine, a photo report of the buildings selected for publication will be carried out after the results have been announced. The organiser, Umicore, will be entirely responsible for the costs and fees for these photo reports. If photos submitted in the file are used, the copyrights for this publication will be transferred to Umicore France. In addition, the winners will receive a work of art (the Trophée ARCHIZINC) to mark their success. They will also receive 200 copies of the magazine (100 copies for the runners-up).

Clause 12 Submission of application dossiers

The deadline for returning the application files is December 31, 2009.

Applications can either be returned to the VMZINC stand at Batimat or sent by post before the deadline, (the postmark will be proof of meeting the deadline), or sent by email to the following address: Trophee.Archizinc@umicore.com.

The descriptions and items to be provided are listed in the application file.

By submitting these items to VMZINC, the candidate accepts their unlimited use in all media (time and space) and for advertising or promotional purposes. The items can be returned to participants at their request after the trophies have been awarded.

Clause 13 Announcement of results

The jury's decision will be announced during the ARCHIZINC Trophy Awards ceremony in May/June 2010.

Clause 14 Administration

The Trophée ARCHIZINC, is managed by the Umicore France company. The organisation reserves the right to modify these rules if necessary. Participants will be notified in good time of any changes.
